

For immediate release

Green Collar Corps awarded energy prize by city

Toronto, ON. 26 April 2010. Ameresco Canada is proud to announce its partner, youth initiative Green Collar Corps, was awarded the Youth Award by the City of Toronto at the 2010 Green Toronto Awards over the weekend for its innovative program and curriculum.

The award acknowledged Green Collar Corps' youth complete an environmental curriculum, commit to demonstrating conservation behaviours in their homes and communities, and participate in educational activities and events which promote environmental stewardship, such as their Recycling Trade Show and Eco-Fashion event, which won accolades.

The initiative with Toronto Community Housing received $5000 to donate to a charity of choice.

Mayor David Miller, Deputy Mayor Joe Pantalone and CityNews Meteorologist Michael Kuss presented winners with the awards at Exhibition Place on Friday April 23rd.

For further information on the work done by Green Collar Corps, visit:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rPJolwEjKL4>

Green Collar Corps with City of Toronto Mayor David Miller

#ENDS#

For media enquiries, please contact:

Craig Piercey
Vice President, Marketing and Business Development Services
cpiercey@ameresco.com
647-788-6017